1. The following statement was made in August 1951 by an important SED functionary in Berlin:

"We are anxiously looking forward to the time when West Berlin will become the 12th Federal state, for then Berlin will officially have been divided by the West. A high barbed-wire fence will immediately be built around West Berlin and traffic will be regulated as is now being done with West Germany. The agents of the West and its disrupting activities would thus be finally eliminated. West Berlin will then be caught in our net."

2. The ~~functionary~~ maintained that this statement of policy is not based on his own opinion but on a decision of the committee for agitation of the Berlin SED.
